51. Read the passage below and answer the questions about it in full sentence.

The county veterinary officer of Buyala was visiting all livestock farmers of the area. When he reached Bute village he met some school children. They were talking about Mr. Mungi's farm animals. They felt sad that this man did not treat his animals well. All the animals had body signs of torture.

The veterinary office listened carefully. He then asked the children to direct him to that farm.

After a few minutes, he had reached the farm, Mr. Mungi had gone to a neighbor's home. This gave the office chance to look at the animals well.

The poultry house had a leaking roof. All the birds looked uncomfortable. The sheds had not been cleaned for long. They smell of animal urine and dung. The sheep and the goats had ticks all over their bodies. They looked sick. Some of dogs had bleeding parts of their tails. They had been docked poorly.

The office was shocked. He rang the police. They came and picked Mr. Mungi. He was given three weeks to make sure his animals were treated well.
