At the end of every term, Annet is always sure of visiting either her relatives or any interesting places of her parents' choice. Her parents want her to relax her mind after three complete months of every day work at school since she is in a boarding school. Last holiday, Annet travelled to Kasese on a vacation. She was interested in visiting Queen Elizabeth National Park and Lake Katwe, which her teacher of Social Studies had talked about in some lessons during the term.

Three days after the term, Annet's parents, set the family for the journey to Kasese. They boarded their family car which the father drove immediately. Because the distance from Jinja to Kasese is long, Annet's mother also got to the steering wheel as they approached Mityana town. She never wanted her husband to get tired yet they wanted a safe drive. Reaching Kasese, they booked a residence at Wanyika Hotel. The following day on Tuesday, the family headed to the national park where they saw a lot of animals like elephants, lions, leopards, etc. They also had a boat cruise along Kazinga Channel at 2:00a.m. Annet was happy to see how salt is mined when they went to Lake Katwe.
