51. Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

It was all joy when Sarah noticed that her birthday date had drawn closer. As it is a tradition to many, Sarah started to prepare for it.

She had an idea of purchasing the best cake ever. This prompted her to ask her mother about the best baker around town. Her mother called Rafiki the baker about it. "A nice cake costs eighty thousand shillings because of the flavours added to it," he said.

"My daughter, I have booked for you the cake already," she said gladly. Sarah couldn't hold her happiness. She hugged her mum in great mood of joy.

The birthday date was 19th May, 2024. All the guests that she invited turned up. The opening prayer was led by Sarah's aunt, speeches, singing, cake cutting and dancing followed respectively.

"To God be the glory for He has kept my granddaughter for now thirteen years. Blow a thousand candles – my wish to you", Veronica said.

54. Read the poem below and answer in full sentences the questions about it.

I live in great uncertainty, she moos!
I don't know if I will eat, drink or sleep
in my kraal,
Whether my calf will be allowed to suckle or not,
Because all depends on my master.

I live in great uncertainty, she bleats!
I don't know if my tail will be docked or
my wool sheared,
Whether my lamb will be offered for sacrifice or not,
It all depends on my master.

I live in great uncertainty so she brays,
I don't know where I will go tomorrow,
How many kilograms of load I will carry on my back,
Because my master dictates.

We live in great uncertainty, they cry in unison!
We don't know when bush fires or droughts will come,
When deadly epidemics will strike, or forests be cut,
Because man decides it all, cries the wild animals.
