Have you ever won a prize for doing something good at school, well here is a story about Monica the disciplined girl! Yesterday, Monica received a big prize for being the most disciplined girl in the school. The prize was given to her by the Director. Before the Director could hand her the prize, the disciplinary master mentioned some of the good things Monica had done at school. He began by saying that Monica is a very good girl because she greets everyone she meets on the way.

Secondly, she is very responsible. She comes to school early. She puts on a full and clean uniform. She also does all the work the teachers give her in class. She cares for and protects the young children of P.1 and the ones of nursery by carrying for them their bags.

When it comes to the compound, Monica plants grass to reduce the dust and flowers to make the compound look beautiful.

The other important thing about Monica is that she is polite and humble. When she makes a mistake, she quickly says "I am sorry." The disciplinary master concluded by saying that Monica is the best pupil because she does the right thing, in the right place at the right time for the right cause and with the right people.

After listening to all the good things about Monica, the chief guest handed her the prize. He then pulled out fifty thousand shillings from his wallet and gave it to her. He promised to buy a new uniform and shoes for the best pupil the following term.
