Adriko is a pupil at Global Junior School, Ekityang Village in Arua District. He stays with his widowed mother and three siblings; a brother and two sisters, all of whom don't go to school. The mother doesn't have money to pay their fees.

Adriko doesn't go to school on Tuesdays and Fridays. On these days, Adriko goes to Ejupala Market to sell chickens and goats that are looked after at home. It is from such sales that Adriko gets money to pay his school fees and to look after the family.

One day, Adriko sold the animals as he had always done. This time, he did not go home after selling the animals. He decided to go to a betting centre and take part. He went on betting until he was left with only two thousand shillings out of the three hundred thousand shillings he had got from the sales.

As it is said, "East or West, home is the best," Adriko had to go back home. On reaching home, he lied to his poor widowed miserable mother that he had been robbed of the money on his way home. Mother smelt a rat, but she kept quiet, after all what could she.

Later in the day, Adriko's mother discovered betting papers in her son's school bag! When she totalled the money spent on betting exercise, plus the two thousand shillings, she received, she discovered that it amounted to three hundred thousand shillings; the exact money Adriko had got from the sales of animals. The poor woman collapsed and was taken to Kuvula Hospital in Arua. What a dreadful day it was!
