Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

DRIVING CARS

In modern Uganda, driving cars is one of the necessities a person should have. A driver should also be able to learn the use of all parts of a car.

A professional driver is awarded a driving permit after completing a driving course which takes a period of one or two months.

The most important of a vehicle is an engine because it gives it power to move while the steering wheel helps to find the right way on the road.

Other important parts of a car include brakes, indicators, tyres, spokes, wing mirrors, wipers, gear levers.

Brakes help to slow down the speed of the vehicle while the gear levers help to interchange gears.

A car should also have spare tyres in case of a flat tyre.

Finally, a driver should also be educated so as to interpret the signs on the road to avoid accidents.

Questions.
