ENVIRONMENTAL DEGRADATION

The official from NEMA have closed a leather factor in Omoro District over polluting a swamp that surround them.

The officials headed by Acting Executive Director, Dr. Willison Pius and Board Chairman, Dr. Willison Kasule, ordered the immediate closure of Norasi channery, an Indian owned hides and skins factory, On Tuesday.

The factory that employs fifty-four staff opened in 2023, purchasing raw hides from across the country. The factory has been processing them to the "wet blue" level which is close to actual leather.

It has been exporting about 100 tonnes of the 'Wet blue' leather mainly to Japan and America according to the factory financial Manger, Rodgers Ali.

NEMA officials, while on their week long tour to assess the state of the environment in the Northern region, discovered that the factory was releasing toxic liquid wastes into Tochi swamp, one of Uganda's Key Reamsar sites recognised world wide.

The papyrus filled wetland which separates Oyam District from Omoro District is home to hundreds of endangered shoe bill birds among other flora and fauna.

However, besides the heavy stench chemicals from factory have chased, they have also burnt the vegetation and killed Marine life in the expense (area) covering about a hundred square kilometers, the size of a village.

Water in the same area had dried which NEMA officials attributed to the same chemicals.

The world has changed
Sons have turned against their fathers
What a bad world it is!

Children are in danger
There are numerous wrong people
Secretly following them day and night
To defile them and sacrifice them.

We ought to be careful and alert
So that we don't fall victims
On to the wicked ways of evil doers
Who spare not any child.

Children, you are our future leaders
Accept neither gifts nor lifts from strangers
For they are merely to confuse you
As all their ways lead to grave.
