SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and answer questions about it in full sentences.
BANKING

Do you have an account with any financial institution? As you might know, knowing the amount of money you have is very crucial to an individual as well as to a business. Fortunately, in Uganda there are a number of business organisations such as banks, companies like the post office and credit unions which handle money very well.

You should decide which of the above organizations you should use basing on the kind of service you intend to have. You may then deposit your money with the organization of your choice and later withdrawal some or all of it by means of a cheque or withdrawal slip. Financial institutions have differences in operation which in turn may be advantageous to the client. However, they are also similar in some ways. All banks and some institutions welcome depositors with savings in small and large amounts. They pay the depositor an interest on the money while it is on the deposit account if it is left there for a reasonable length of time.

The commonest savings accounts are the current account and fixed account. The current savings account allows the depositor to withdrawal money on the account up to the full amount deposited, the fixed deposit account does not allow the depositor to withdraw money until the agreed time. To withdraw money, the depositor must appear in person to fill out the required form or slip.

Dear sir,

Re: INVITATION TO A DEBATE

I am writing to invite your P.7 class to a debate. I suggest this debate takes place on 20th July, 2024. The motion should be FORMAL EDUCATION IS BETTER THAN INFORMAL EDUCATION.

Since we are going to propose, you will take the opposition side. I also suggest that Mr. Okwakol James of your school becomes the judge for the debate. Let the debate start at exactly 9:00 am and end at 12:00 noon.

I am looking forward to your positive.

Yours faithfully,
Kanselo Yonan
