THE SPORTS DAY

Nkondo Primary School organized a sports day. All the pupils were divided into houses and each house had a leader elected by pupils of that school. The houses were Nile, Victoria, Kyoga and Albert. Victoria had its leader Catherine. All teachers liked Catherine because she was hardworking and well behaved.

Catherine was at first doing well, as she was practicing with her house members daily. Time came when she was doing the opposite. She became proud of herself in front of other pupils. Whenever she was given some items like glucose and sugarcane to be given out during practice. Catherine kept them to go and share with her friends in the dormitory. Her behavior did not please the members of the house. They decided to report the matter to the house masters.

for the general practice for all the houses. During the meeting, members talked about Catherine's conduct. Some said that they had given up but the teachers advised Catherine to apologize to the members.

In the afternoon, the houses assembled for the practice. This saw Victoria's participants becoming last in each race. Catherine lost fame and became quiet. The rest of the houses beat Victoria in each and every event. After the general practice. Catherine called her members and apologized. She called upon them to regain house spirit. This made her buy glucose using some of her pocket money.

The awaited day came and participants assembled in the field. In the first event of the long race, the first and third positions were taken by Victoria house. When the results of the field events were brought at the recording table. Victoria house was leading in most of them and this made Catherine and her house-mates very happy.

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentence, the questions that follow;

Waya Primary School is a day school in the middle of Sesseme Village. In this school, lunch is given only to those pupils whose parents have paid lunch money.

One day, four boys and three girls studying in the school started their journey home. It was after the afternoon classes. None of their parents had paid the lunch money. These children were hungry and weak. On their way, they saw a mango tree with some ripe fruits on it.

"I am hungry. Why don't we visit that mango tree for fruits?" Bruno, one of the boys asked "Yeah" his friend Robert shouted excitedly. The rest including the girls supported the idea.

All the seven of them started to throw some stones at them. One of the girls, Kawudha, said, I see a bee-hive on that big branch'. "We shall not climb but just throw stones. Make sure you don't disturb the bees." Robert said.

They started throwing stones at the ripe mangoes. Some mangoes fell on the ground. Unfortunately quite a number of mangoes fell on the beehive. The boys and girls started collecting mangoes which had fallen.

On the ground, suddenly, a swarm of bees rushed out of the beehive. The bees attacked all of them. Each one of them was running towards the road. The bees followed them and stung everyone. They threw away all the ripe mangoes they had picked.

"Fall down and cover yourselves with grass!" Shouted Mathew. All of them did so. After a few minutes the bees went back to their beehive. The girls remained on the ground crying. The boys called the girls as they were removing the grass from their bodies. They continued their journey home. Their mouths, hands, eyes, noses, ears and other parts of their bodies were all swollen.

When they reached home. Their parents saw the way each one of them looked. They were sorry for their children. One of the boys told the parents that they were hungry since they did not get lunch at school. The parents were concerned and after treating their children they went with them to school and they talked to the head teacher.

Last week, primary seven pupils of Molo Boarding Primary school went for an educational tour. They visited Mrs. Byakika's farm at Kolonyi. This followed their science lesson on domestic animals by Mr. Amu. Some

The pupils started preparing for the journey as soon as the lesson ended. Children washed and ironed their uniforms. Others wrote down questions they would ask the farm manager.

The following morning on Friday, they woke up very early, to prepare. They bathed, dressed and had breakfast. Immediately the school bus reached the packing yard, they just boarded. On their way, they saw many important places. Their social studies teacher showed them Mabira forest and Kakira Sugar Factory. Other places were the Coca cola Industry and Kile Tea Estate. He told them how important these places were to the country.

At the farm, they were welcomed by Mrs. Byakika herself. They were all surprised to see the old woman managing the farm very well. She had only four workers. The farm was divided into two units. These were units for livestock and crops. The livestock unit was for poultry, pigs and dairy cows. The crops grown in the farm were maize, coffee and greens.

With the help of workers. Mrs. Byakika led the pupils to the different units. At each unit. She explained the activities that were taking place there. Some pupils asked questions which she answered very well. She encouraged the Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each.

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Zawadi was woken up by the loud crowing of a cock in the neighborhood. She sat on her bed and this time, forgot to pray, like she used to do. She jumped out of her bed only to realize that everybody was still asleep. She tip-toed to her parents' bedroom. Just at the door way, she heard some snoring. This confirmed her expectation. "Now is the chance to let everybody know that I can wake up before them". She said to herself happily.

In a few minutes, she was already dressed and set for school. Opening the door quietly, she got out. She started her journey to school. She was surprised walking for some distance without meeting anybody. This didn't scare her. She continued with her journey until she met a man. The man looked unkind but proved to be kind when he asked to give her a lift on his bicycle. Zawadi accepted and thanked him.

The man rode very fast and even faster towards the school. She told the man that he had passed the school but he pretended not to have heard. The louder she shouted, the faster he rode. Zawadi realized that she was in danger. She immediately prayed to God and contained her tears. When they reached a trading centre and saw some people, she shouted for help “This man is kidnapping me! Kidnapping me! Kidnapping!” she shouted. People at the trading centre started running after them. Those who had bicycles rode faster after him. Finally, they caught up with him. The man realizing danger abandoned the bicycle and fled for his life.

The strong men ran after him while women remained with Zawadi listening to her story. Luckily enough, the man was caught and brought back to the trading centre. ^{አዎችናዘዱናዕሩታዊሮ} ከነጋዢ ወልደትናዕሩታዊሮ charged. He was sentenced to ten years imprisonment for attempted kidnap. Birds are singing in the forest
Waves are moving on River Nile
Waves are all shaking.
And leaves are all shaking.
In the sun.

The Clock's hands go on turning
And the school boys and girls of P.7 go on learning
But I'm crying simply crying
For the lesson to end

When I am old, not strong,
When I am at school, no longer,
When lesson times and school days are over.
If there is singing in the forest,
If there are waves on the River Nile.
If leaves are all there.
And, the sun is out,
I will greet all of them.

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow;

My name is Nakato and I am a Primary Seven candidate in Piri Boarding Primary School. I have a short story to share with fellow candidates.

Last year, during the second term holiday, my mother sent me to the market. She wanted me to buy a pumpkin. I asked Bruno, my half brother, to come along with me. A short distance away from home, we met an old man. He was carrying a bag made out of dry palm leaves. He looked a very poor old man from a village. He smiled and greeted us. Bruno answered but I kept quiet. I did not like the way he was dressed. He then asked us to direct him to the house but not like the way he a lawyer. Mr. Mutebi. I never wanted Bruno to direct him to our home but he did. This hurt me so much that I felt like fighting Bruno. He told me that it was bad manners to treat strangers like that.

Immediately we got back home, my mother welcomed us. She was very happy to have a visitor. The visitor was the old man we had met on the way. She asked us to greet him. Bruno went immediately and shook his hand. I pretended that I was taking the pumpkin to the kitchen. My mother was very angry with me.
She asked if that was the kind of respect I showed to elders. She continued to shout at me saying that the old man was my grandfather. "Calm down my daughter. Nakato has heard", said the old man. He then picked a watch from his old bag and handed it to my half brother Bruno, may God bless you, my grandson," he said.

Oh my God! I missed a very beautiful watch. I was ashamed before my mother and grandfather too. Fellow candidates, I advise you to always respect elders.

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each

51. Read the passage below and then answer. In full sentences, the questions that follow.

In our sub-county, there are two activities done everyday. These are farming and business. Most people are farmers. They grow different crops and rear cattle. Men and women are both involved in the business.

chicken, goats and cattle. They sell different items including foodstuffs and animal products from the farms.

Mr. Amooti is among the well known businessmen in the area. He has the biggest shop. In his shop, there is a variety of items. Some are weighed in kilograms like sugar, maize flour, rice, beans and groundnuts. Others are packed in bottles or packets like juice, soda, water, shoe polish, salt and baking flour.

If anyone needed paraffin or cooking oil, these would be measured in litres. They are also measured in small quantities as a person may require. There is hardly anything a person may want for home use that is not in Mr. Amooti's shop.

In order to serve his many customers well, Mr. Amooti has employed some workers to help him. They all serve with a smile. More so, items in his shop are cheaper compared to those from other shops. When children go to buy from his shop, he sometimes gives them sweets. It is a reward for choosing to buy from his shop.

Mawundo.

2nd November, 2018

Dear Mummy,

I am pleased to write to you again after such a long time. How are I am in Nairobi? Back here we are alright and I am you and how is work in Nairobi, we are... preparing for Primary Leaving Examination (PLE).

Mummy, I am writing to inform you that our school has successfully registered us for the PLE 2018 and we are very happy. Now I am ready to sit for the Primary Leaving Examination. Infact, all the candidates have been briefed by our head teacher, Mr. Kato Joseph.

During the briefing he said, "All of you should take note of the PLE timetable. This will help you to know how the subjects have been arranged." He also emphasized that we should read the general instructions carefully and those inside the question paper. After that, the head teacher gave a chance to all P.7 teachers to brief us too. Mrs. Okello, our class teacher advised on filling in information on the first page carefully. She also told us to read each question twice, understand and then answer what is required.

The other three teachers talked about writing our responses in the spaces provided in the question paper. They encouraged us to have confidence in ourselves. They added that all the questions set are within the curriculum. They warned us against any kind of examination malpractice.

Mummy, the teachers also reassured us that we shall pass with flying colours. I am ready and revising seriously following the timetable. Pray for me not to forget what I was taught.

Please, send my regards to my little brother Jatel Anthony. I wish you all the best while doing your work.

Your loving daughter,

- ## 55. MY PLANS AFTER PRIMARY LEAVING EXAMINATION
- First and foremost, I take this great chance to thank my head teacher and teachers at large for the wonderful work they have rendered to me.

34. Segula. Good afternoon Baguma
Baguma: Good afternoon Segula Segula: What is that?

Baguma: It is a young monkey
Segula: Are you a poacher?

Baguma: No. I am not a poacher Segula: How did you catch it?

Baguma: I caught it when I scared them with my dogs and the mother abandoned it.

They were eating my maize.

Segula: Where will you keep it?

Baguma: I shall keep it at home and build a small cage for it.

Segula: What will you feed it with?

Baguma: I shall feed it with some yellow bananas and maize

Segula: You should report to Uganda Wildlife Authority

During this holiday, am very ready to help my parents in every chore that I shall be shown to do.

When my results come back in my real expectancy, I shall celebrate by the help of my parents through organizing a small sized function together with all my well-wishers.

Conclusively, I give the glory to God for all this long journey moved up to here.
