Primary Five

ENGLISH

Best in class

"Learn from the known to the unknown concepts"

ABOUT THIS BOOK

This book has been written for you to learn work for Primary Five alongside that of Primary Four English.

In case there is some work of Primary Four that you missed, you will be able to find it in this Pupil's Companion.

You should remember that we learn from what we know to what we don't know. That is why this book takes you back a little in order to remind you of what you already learnt or should have known before you learn the new concepts of Primary Five.

You will learn better and faster if you do all the activities in this book. You will be able to create knowledge on your own in the long run. Feel free to share the information and activities in this book with the rest of your classmates and teachers, so that you can achieve more.

In situations where you learnt all the work of Primary Four, then you have an opportunity to go through it as revision before you can learn new work.

Work as you revise, revise as you learn more, learn as you enjoy.

TOPIC 1: VEHICLE REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE.

Introduction

You must have travelled in a vehicle of any kind e.g a car, bicycle, taxi, motorcycle, bus etc. These vehicles are very important to us because they transport people and goods from one place to another.

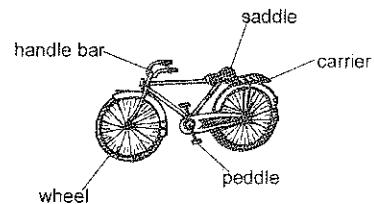

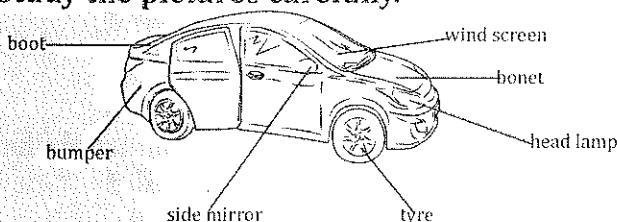

Parts of a vehicle work hand in hand; if one is faulty, the vehicle might not move well.

Now answer these questions orally:

1. How many parts of a car do you know? Mention them.
2. Which parts of a bicycle do you know?
3. Which tools used in Vehicle repair do you know?
4. What can be done in order to keep a vehicle in good condition?
5. Why should people have well maintained vehicles?
6. Visit a garage of your choice and find out the equipment that is commonly found there.

SUB – TOPIC 1A: PARTS OF A VEHICLE.

Study the pictures carefully.

Vocabulary practice:

Read and study the meaning of these words.

bell: a hollow object, often shaped like a cup that makes a loud sound when hit by a small piece of metal inside it boot: the space at the back of a car where you put bags, cases, etc in.

♦ The cyclist sounded the bell when he got destruction.

♦ Open the boot and get your bag.

♦ The tow truck had a chain which it used to pull the car.

driving mirror: a mirror inside a vehicle which the driver uses to see the behind objects

♦ I did not see the motorcycle behind us because the driving mirror was not in the right position.

engine: the part of a vehicle that produces power to make the vehicle move

♦ The engine of the school van has failed to start.

handlebar:	a metal bar, with a handle at each end that you use for steering a bicycle or motorcycle to make it continuously moving
	♦ Hold the handlebar firmly as you are riding.
headlamp:	a large light, usually one of the two, at the front of a vehicle; or the beam from this light
	♦ When it got dark, the driver put on the headlamp. indicator:	a light on a vehicle that flashes to show that the vehicle is going to turn left or right.
	♦ When Birungi was turning left, she put on an indicator.
pedal:	a flat bar on a machine such as a bicycle, car etc that you push down with your foot in order to make parts of the machine move or work
	♦ I bought new pedals for my bicycle.

PRACTICAL ACTIVITY

Get a ball, together with your friends, stand in a circle. The first person must call out a word then toss the ball to another player. The catcher must spell out the word and then toss the ball to the next person with a new word. If a player gets stuck, they can pass on the ball to let someone else have a go. Stick to vocabulary learnt under parts of a vehicle.

Language structures

Using: It is bad to (tell lies, come late)

Try this activity:

There are certain things that you are not meant to do. Do you know them? Mention them; e.g. It is bad to eat with dirty hands/Eating with dirty hands is bad; etc. Mention 5 of them

Infinitives

An infinitive is formed by adding "to" to the verb (a verb in the base form).

Read these sentences.

1. I want to go home.
2. It is bad to steal.
3. They like to sing.

Make sentences:

Use: It is bad to

1. It is bad to tell lies.
2. It is bad to steal.

It is bad to steal.

Exercise

Rewrite the sentences beginning : It is bad to

1. Being unkind to animals is bad.
♦ It is bad to be unkind to animals.
2. Abusing people is bad.
3. Spoiling people's property is bad.
4. Dodging work is bad.
5. Fighting with friends is bad.

Language structures

Using “-----must-----”

Introduction

Your parents/guardian/teacher might have set some rules for you to follow at home/school. Do you know any of them?

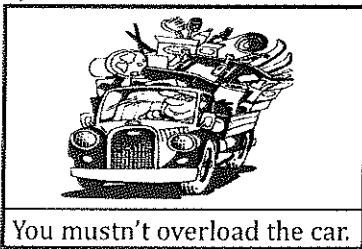

While talking to you, they might have used the words "must" or "mustn't".

For example;

- a) You must put on clean clothes.
- b) You mustn't go away from home without permission.
- "must" is used to say that something is necessary or very important (sometimes involving a rule or a law).
- The negative of 'must' is 'must not.'
- 'must not' is used when one is not sure of necessity for something. It is used in the negative form only.

Read these sentences.

- a) We must take our vehicles for service.
- b) You mustn't overload the car.

You mustn't overload the car.

Exercise

Rewrite the sentences using "-----must/mustn't-----"

- 1. The head teacher should buy new brakes for his bicycle.
♦ The head teacher must buy brakes for his bicycle.
- 2. Musa should replace the front tyres.
- 3. You shouldn't overload the car.
- 4. Okeya should repair his lorry.
- 5. Eunice has to close the boot before driving off.
- 6. Birungi shouldn't buy a new engine.
- 7. The old man should replace his vehicle's headlamps because they are old.

Language structures

In the previous lesson, you used the word 'must' to say rules. We can also use 'should' the same way we use 'must'.

Using.....should.....

"should" is used to give advice.

Read these sentences.

- a) You should arrive early.
- b) We should do the homework.

Activity

Write five sentences using.....should.....

Using: You / he/ she should not----- (tell lies)

Now you can read these examples:

- a) You should not tell lies.
- b) She should not eat unwashed fruit.

Exercise

Rewrite the sentences using-----should not-----

1. Kapele escapes from school.
2. Onapito speaks bad words.
3. Nambi plays on the way to school.
4. Eddie blows a whistle from the classroom.
5. Richard quarrels with his neighbour.
6. You must take care of the engine very well.
7. Allen mustn't open the boot with force.
8. Madibo must not dirty that headlamp.
9. The cyclist must not ring the bell if there isn't any obstruction.
10. You must remove the mud from the mudguard.
11. They must apply oil on the chain to reduce friction.

Language structures

Using: We / he/she should not (steal, lie) ---because ---- (it is bad)

Introduction

In the previous lessons, we learnt that 'must' and 'should' are used when giving advice, instructions and rules to follow. There is a reason why rules are put in place.

Today, we shall use the word 'because' since it introduces the reason why something is done. for example;

- a) You must put on clean clothes because it makes you smart.
- b) You shouldn't go away from home without permission because you might fall in danger.

Now, you can read these examples:

Examples:

- a) We should not dodge lessons because it is bad.
- b) We should not lie to our teachers because it is bad.

Exercise

Rewrite the sentences using.....because..... (it is bad)

1. They should not be rude to animals. It is bad.
2. Adults should not slap the babies. It is bad.
3. Meru should not disobey his teacher. It is bad.

4. He should not steal. It is bad.
 5. We should not play risky games. It is bad.

COMMON MISTAKES

'Not'

Incorrect: I asked her to not come here.

Correct: I asked her not to come here.

Comment: The position of 'not' in the negative infinitive is immediately before to and not after it.

Incorrect: It has been not raining for long.

Correct: It has not been raining for long.

Incorrect: You should have not done the work.

Correct: You should not have done the work.

Comment: When you have to use more than one helping verb before the main verb in a sentence, the position of 'not' should be after the first helping verb.

Language structures

Using "-----has----", "-----have-----"

Introduction:

When you have just done something, it shows that the effect of that action is still being felt.
Try this;

- (i) Clap twice; what have you done?
- (ii) Let him/her jump thrice; what has he/she done?
- (iii) Ask them to dance; what have they done?

So, when we use has/have to mention an action, it shows that it ended a few moments back.

Read these sentences.

1. I have touched the mirror.
2. She has cleaned the windscreen.
3. They have sat on the carrier.

'has' and 'have' form the present perfect tense. They are followed by the verbs in the past participle.

We use 'have' with plural subjects and pronoun (I and you). 'Has' is used with singular subjects.

He	}	I
She		We
It		You
Musa		The girls
Singular nouns	}	Plural nouns

Examples.

- a) My father has repaired his van.
- b) Tom and Paul have broken the side mirror.

- c) I have bought a new tyre.
d) She has taken the motorcycle for repair.

Note: 'has' and 'have' can also be used to show possession e.g.

He has two spanners.

Exercise

Use 'have' or 'has' to complete the sentences.

1. Okuti's car has broken down.
2. The mechanics _____ bought new spokes for the bicycle.
3. The driver _____ started the engine.
4. The passengers _____ misplaced the spare tyre.
5. I _____ bought new wheels for the car.
6. He _____ used a pump to put pressure into the bicycle tube.
7. How many vehicles _____ the mechanic repaired?
8. The stone _____ hit the windscreen.
9. Mr. Kabuye _____ dirtied the side mirror.
10. The bicycle _____ been taken to the garage.
11. The carrier _____ dropped off the bicycle.
12. Petero _____ cleaned the saddle.
13. The bell _____ failed to work.
14. The handlebar _____ got a crack.
15. The brakes _____ broken down.

Grammar

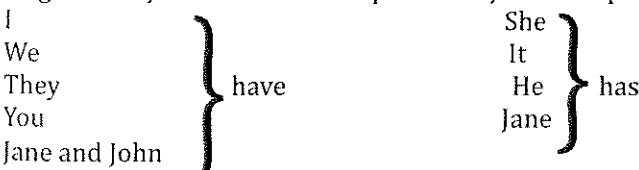

The present perfect tense.

The present perfect tense is used:

- a) to talk about something that happens during the period of time that is not yet finished; e.g.
(i) He has driven off.
(ii) They haven't replaced the car.
- b) When the time in the past is not mentioned, and is not important e.g.
(i) The spanner has got lost.
(ii) They have fastened their seat belts.

- c) When the action finished is in the past, but the effect is still felt in the present e.g.
(i) Musieme has hit me with a pedal.
(ii) The handlebar has got broken.

Therefore, we use 'has' and 'have' and the past participle of the main verb. 'has' is used with singular subjects and 'have' for plural subjects and pronouns (I and you).

NB: Though the word 'present' is used, this tense expresses past time. The word 'present' refers to the tense of the auxiliary verb (helping verb) 'has' or 'have'.

Read these sentences.

- a) Madilu has opened the toolbox.
- b) They have bought a new frame for the bicycle.
- c) He has negotiated the corner.

Formation of the past participle of the verbs.

For regular verbs, adding "ed" to the base form creates the past participle.

verb	past participle
cook	cooked
jump
play repair
wash
call

For irregular verbs, "en", "t", "d" and "n" are added to the base form to create the past participle.

(i) Using "en" to form the past participle.

verb	past participle
choose	chosen
steal speak write shake ride
freeze

(ii) Using "t" to form the past participle.

verb	past participle
kneel	knelt catch feel lend lose sleep

(iii) Using "d" to form the past participle.

verb	past participle
hear	heard
pay sell stand have

(iv) Using “n” to form the past participle.

verb	past participle
grow	grown
fly	_____
know	_____
lie	_____
throw	_____
win	_____

(v) These verbs have no specific order.

verb	past participle
bear	borne
see	_____
say	_____
wear	_____
make	_____

(vi) These verbs don't change.

verb	past participle
become	become
run	_____
set	_____
cut	_____
put	_____
hurt	_____

(vii) Using “ght” to form the past participle.

verb	past participle
bring	brought
fight	_____
buy	_____
teach	_____

Exercise

A) Use the correct form of the word given in brackets to complete the sentence.

1. The cyclist has rung the bicycle bell. (ring)

12. I have _____ the chain to Edwin. (lend)
13. The careless man has _____ his wipers at the garage. (leave)
14. That woman has _____ my number plates. (hide)
15. The broken pedal has _____ my leg. (hurt)

B) Change the following sentences to the present perfect tense.

Example

1. Tom bought five tyres.
♦ Tom has bought five tyres.
2. Some children cleaned the windscreen.
3. She drew a saddle.
4. They rang the bell.
5. He drove to town.

COMMON MISTAKES

Incorrect: She returned back home.

Correct: - She has returned home. Or
- She has come back home.

Comment: The word back cannot be used with return, because 'return' means to 'come back'

Incorrect: I have finished with reading the book.

Correct: I have finished reading the book.

Comment: "I have finished with the book" means I have no more use for the book.

Comprehension (poem)

Read the poem below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

*Like the Creator made people
He put them in one body but with different parts

Lugoti is a mechanic at Sure Auto Garage. Lugoti always came back home in dirty overalls. His daughter Maria was not always happy about this. She wondered why her mother never complains while washing the dirty overalls yet she always complained about Maria's dirty clothes. Maria wanted her father to be smart like Lina's father.

One Saturday, Lugoti fell sick, he failed to go to work that day. The next morning, Lugoti dressed smartly, and went to hospital. When his daughter saw him, she became very happy because she had always wanted her father to be smart. Days went by and her father always left home smartly dressed. He was seriously ill and Maria did not know this.

Soon, the family did not have what to eat because Lugoti was not working. Maria asked her mother why they had started to suffer. Her mother explained to her the situation at home. Maria started becoming worried. She prayed that her father would put on overalls again such that they would get what to eat. She started watching her father every morning to see whether he was dressed in overalls. She had now known how important the overalls were.

Questions:

- (a) What is Lugoti?
- (b) Where does Lugoti work?
- (c) Whose father did Maria admire?
- (d) Why did Lugoti fail to go to work on Saturday?
- (e) When did Lugoti go to the hospital?
- (f) Why didn't the family have what to eat?
- (g) What did Maria want to see every morning?
- (h) What do you think made the overalls dirty?
- (i) Write another word or group of words with the same meaning as the underlined in the passage:
 - (i) seriously
 - (ii) worried

Annet: You are welcome to my shop.

Denise: Thank you. Do you sell spare parts?

Annet : Yes, I sell German, Chinese, Japanese and French spare parts.

Which ones do you want?

Denise: I want the Japanese ones.

Annet : Japanese spare parts are for different kinds of cars. There are those for Noah, Ipsum, Ford, Carib, etc.

Denise: I want the spare parts for a Ford. I want reflectors, wipers, headlamps and a windscreens.

Annet : Why do you need the front spare parts only? Were you involved in an Accident?

Denise: Yes, I hit a cow on my way to Guga. It died on the spot. So, all those parts got broken.

Annet : Ok; reflectors cost one hundred thousand shillings, wipers cost one hundred fifty thousand shillings, headlamps go for two hundred thousand shillings and the windscreens costs seven hundred thousand shillings.

Denise: You are too expensive. I have the money for only the three spare parts that is, reflectors, headlamps and a windscreens.

Annet : The spare parts for Ford cars are expensive. However, since you are paying for the three, I shall give you the wipers free of charge.

Denise: Thank you so much.

Comprehension (passage)

Read the story below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

One day, I was instructed by my mum to go to the garden and harvest maize corn since it was a Saturday and I had not gone to school. I quickly got my bicycle and rode to the garden.

On my way to the garden, I did not get any problem with the bicycle. It was moving very well as I expected though it had some few mechanical errors which were not solved the previous week.

Coming back, the bicycle started making an unusual sound in the chain wheel. Few minutes later, the chain got out. I had to stop and put it back. Riding down the slope, the brakes broke. This frightened me and as a result, I started trembling. I controlled it by God's mercy and reached a flat area. I had to jump off and push it.

W. Suddenly, the tyre became flat. This annoyed me so much and I regretted having left the pump at home despite my mother's reminder. I tried as much as possible to push it up to home but it wasn't easy for me. It was really a tiring day.

Language structures

Using "If"

If 1

- This is used to talk about the consequences (results) of a possible action. It is used when we want to say that something is going to happen if a certain condition is fulfilled.
- The verb in the if - clause is in the present simple tense; the verb in the main clause is in the future tense; e.g.
 1. If I get a file, I will sharpen this tester.
 2. I will sharpen this tester if I get a file.
- When we want to talk about the general truth, we use the present tense in both the if - clause and the main clause(zero condition) e.g.
 1. If you hit yourself, you feel pain.
 2. You feel pain if you hit yourself.

You feel pain if you hit yourself.

- When advising somebody to do something because of a relevant condition, we use the present tense in the if -clause and the imperative in the main clause; e.g.
 1. If the vehicle stops functioning properly, take it to the mechanic.
 2. Take your vehicle to the mechanic if it stops functioning properly.
- Use a comma in the if -clause if it comes first and don't apply a comma if the main clause comes first.

More examples.

- If I get a toolbox, I will put in all these tools.
- He will break those metals if he gets a hammer.
- If the mechanic gets the pliers, she will twist the wires.

Exercise

A) Write out if (1) sentences using the groups of words below e.g.

- seeing the tester, bringing it to me
- getting a flat tyre, taking it to the mechanic
- my tyre losing pressure pumping the tyre
- buying a windscreen, replacing the broken one
- buying a hammer, hitting all the nails

B) Punctuate and complete the following if (1) sentences sensibly.

- If you get a flat tyre, _____
- If Jane puts oil in the engine, _____
- If I use sandpaper to rub the surfaces, _____
- If I brake the car, _____
- If the driver turns the steering wheel, _____

C) Use the correct form of the word given in brackets.

- If the machine loses oil, it functions poorly.(function)
- If he _____ his tester, he will test the presence of power in this machine.(finding)
- The metal will become smooth if he _____ it. (smooth)
- If I find out that the wires are aging, I will _____ them.(replace)
- The mechanic will repair the puncture in the tube if he _____ super glue.(get)

COMMON MISTAKES

Smooth

Incorrect: The mechanics smoothen the surface of the metal using a file.

Correct: The mechanic smooths the surface of the metal using a file.

Comment: The present simple of verb (smooth) is smooths. The same as in dirty – dirties (present simple).

Language structures

Using “-----in order-----”

In order is used to demand for a reason why something happened or was done. It is also used to show ‘the purpose or intention of doing or achieving something. ‘in order’ and “ so as ” are followed by preposition ‘to’. In order is related to “so that” and “such that” in meaning.

Comprehension (passage)

Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Last week, our teacher of English organized a class tour to Mr. Walusimbi's garage. A class of fifty five children and our teacher set off from school at 8:00a.m. by school van and headed to the garage.

On our way to the garage, we saw very many interesting things. At 9:00 a.m., we arrived at the garage safely. We all got off the school van and got ready for the visit. The mechanic happily welcomed us into the room where all the equipment were kept. There was a tool box in which he kept all the tools.

He showed us different tools like spanner, screw driver, car jack and nuts. He explained the uses of the tools he showed to us. Our teacher thanked the mechanic for allowing us to visit his garage.

We were then asked some questions about what we had learnt. Most of us answered the questions correctly. At 2:00 p.m, we departed from the garage and proceeded to school. It was really the most interesting visit I have ever had.

4. We in a happy way welcomed the visitor.
5. He beat the boy without mercy.

Grammar

Adverbs of place:

These adverbs show the place or position where an action of the verb took place or will take place. They are mainly about places e.g. there, Masaka, here, somewhere, in front, behind, etc. They are usually placed after the direct object of the sentence.

They answer the question of "where".

Examples:

- (a) Where did the pilot go?
• The pilot went to Arua.
- (b) Where has the passenger put her luggage?
• The passenger has put her luggage in the house.

Exercise

Underline the adverbs of place.

1. The drunkard sailor threw his luggage in the lake.
2. Jimmy spent his holiday in America.
3. The conductor scattered our property on the verandah.
4. I shall put your luggage outside.
5. Nathan has travelled to Tororo because he has lost a relative.
6. I put my ticket in the pocket when I reached my destination.
7. The driver parked his vehicle in the garage.
8. Please, put your books somewhere before you travel.
9. The captain bought meat when we went to Jinja.
10. Safina will travel to the village in December.
11. We shall have a rest at Bonanza Hotel.

COMMON MISTAKES

Adverbs of place

Incorrect: Birds fly in the sky freely.

Correct: Birds fly freely in the sky.

Incorrect: They were shouting in the classroom very loudly.

Correct: They were shouting very loudly in the classroom.

Comment: If an adverb of place and an adverb of manner are used together in a sentence, the adverb of manner usually comes first.

Grammar

Adverbs of time:

They show when an action of the verb happened, will happen/ happens.

We can determine the adverbs of time from the word "when". These adverbs are normally placed at the beginning or end of a clause or sentence.

Read these sentences.

(a) I went to the village in December.

(b) I ended my journey yesterday.

Exercise

Underline the adverbs of time in the sentences below.

1. It took a month for the tourist to move around Uganda.
2. Our teacher came back sooner than we expected.
3. The pilot has been at the airport since morning.
4. We hope to reach by midnight.
5. Lillian will travel to Mukono soon.
6. He reached the capital city of Kenya late.
7. Male and his family will go on tour before next year.
8. Okoro never boarded an aeroplane in his entire life.

COMMON MISTAKES

Incorrect: We last night went to the cinema.

Correct: We went to the cinema last night.

Incorrect: I two months ago went home.

Correct: I went home two months ago.

Incorrect: They last week came here.

Correct: They came here last week.

Comment: Adverbs or adverbial phrases of definite (known) time are usually placed at the end of the sentence. Only when the time is emphasized, the time adverb is brought to the front e.g.

- Yesterday, I was very busy.

Incorrect: Our boys will be tomorrow here.

Correct: Our boys will be here tomorrow.

Incorrect: I went last week to Mombasa.

Correct: I went to Mombasa last week.

Comment: If an adverb of time and adverb of place are used together in a sentence, the adverb of place should come first.

Grammar

The use of 'arrive' and 'reach.'

- To arrive is to get to a place while to reach is to arrive at the place that you have been travelling to.
- arrive and reach mean the same but they are used differently.

- arrive; takes "at" to refer to a smaller area. It takes "in" when referring to a bigger place.
- at a place e.g. station, school, hospital.
 - in a city, country, continent, town, etc.

Note: We arrive home. No preposition is used when referring to home.

This implies that 'arrive' can be used with propositions at, in and without any when referring to home e.g I arrived home safely.

'reach' is not used with any preposition of place hence it should not take any except the one for time e.g. I arrived at 7p.m.

Examples.

Read these sentences.

- I will reach the station in the morning.
- Daudeta reached South Africa yesterday evening.
- He arrived at the accident scene very late.
- My mother arrives home late in the night.

Exercise

A) Rewrite these sentences using 'reach'.

- Musiime will arrive in Sudan at 1:00 p.m.
- He arrives home in the evening.
- The boy arrives at school very late.
- The old woman arrives at the market before noon.

B) Rewrite these sentences using "arrive".

- The policemen reached the crime scene as soon as they heard about the incident.
♦ The policemen arrived at the crime scene as soon as they heard about the incident.
- Our teacher reached the police post in the morning.
- The boys reached school very late.
- We will reach America in the afternoon.
- They are likely to reach home soon.
- Bajope will reach the crime scene later.
- Masaba reached Gulu very late.

COMMON MISTAKES

Into and in (place)

Incorrect: He went in his office.

Correct: He went into his office.

Comment: 'in' indicates position or rest inside something, whereas 'into' denotes motion or direction towards the inside of something.
Don't write "in" and "to" separately. "into" is a single word.

Grammar

The past continuous tense.

The past continuous tense.

- This tense talks about an action that continued for sometime in the past and later stopped.
- It is formed with the helping verbs 'was' and 'were'.
- 'was' is used with singular subjects while 'were' with plural subjects.

He	{	We	}
She		They
It		You
Denis		Paul and Jane
I

Note:

- Some verbs are NOT used in the continuous tense e.g. need, trust, want, like, see, love, believe, know, agree, remember, seem, appear, understand, etc
- Most verbs with one syllable and one vowel and end in a single consonant, (except w, y and x) this consonant is doubled before adding 'ing': e.g. cut - cutting, stop - stopping, hit - hitting, etc.
- Some verbs ending with 'ie' change it to 'y' before adding 'ing' e.g. die - dying, tie - tying, lie - lying.
- When the verb ends in single -e, the -ing form is formed by removing -e and adding -ing e.g. care - caring, come - coming, dance - dancing.

Read these sentences.

- Aksam was driving a lorry.
- The boys were stopping the bus.
- I was travelling to the village.

Formation of the continuous tense.

Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

The journey to the village started at six o'clock in the morning. Every one was ready and off to the bus park we went. My father carried the luggage. Mother helped us to cross the road. The conductor loaded our luggage in the boot when we arrived at the bus park. He later gave us our tickets.

We set off from the bus park at seven o'clock in the morning and the journey seemed to be a good one. We made a stopover at Sipro Trading Centre. We bought some eats and drinks then continued with our journey.

As we were approaching Para Village, our driver received a call. It was from his wife. She had won a car from a promotion. She had participated in the promotion for a month. The driver became very happy. He parked the bus by the road side and shared the good news with all the passengers. He then asked his conductor to continue with the journey. He went back home to join his wife. The conductor happily accepted to drive us to Mitoni Village since he also knew how to drive a bus.

We reached at ten minutes past two o'clock in the afternoon. What an interesting journey it was!

Grammar

Interjections.

These are short sounds, words or phrases spoken suddenly to express emotions. The emotions can be of joy, wonder or surprise.

These sentences or statements end with an exclamation mark (!) and begin with words like 'What' or 'How'

Read these sentences.

- (i) What an interesting letter this is!
- (ii) How clever this writer is!

The formula is "What a/an + adjective + common noun + helping verb or verb."

"What" requires an article 'a' or 'an' if it is used with singular subjects and a common noun, for example:

- i) What an honest man the writer is!
 - ii) What a brief letter this is!
- "What" with plural subjects doesn't require articles.
 - 'How' doesn't need any article. It is immediately followed by the adjective, for example:
 - a) How lovely this letter is!
 - b) How ugly the writer is!

Exercise

(A) Rewrite these sentences beginning: What-----

1. He is a very tall man
♦ What a tall man he is!
2. This is a very detailed letter.
3. That is a very beautiful picture.
4. The receiver is a very kind man.
5. That is a very dirty envelope.
6. The hostess wore a very nice dress.
7. He organised a very colourful party.

(B) Rewrite these sentences using ----- very-----

1. What sweet mangoes these are!
♦ These are very sweet mangoes.
2. How nice this envelope looks!
3. What a charming writer this is!
4. What a clever writer this is!
5. What a long letter he wrote!

(c) Rewrite these sentences beginning: How-----

1. This handwriting is very illegible.
♦ How illegible this handwriting is!
2. This envelope is very wet.
3. That letter is very lengthy.
4. Our reply is very detailed.
5. The stamp is very beautiful.

Grammar

Punctuation.

This is the use of special marks in writing to divide sentences and phrases. They include: question marks, full stops, commas, hyphens, quotation marks, exclamation marks, colons, apostrophes, semi-colons and capital letters.

• The full stop (.)

A full stop is used at the end of a logical and complete thought.

Examples: a) I don't want to become a doctor.

b) My father has travelled to Jinja.

A full stop is also used in some abbreviations, for example:

a.m. – in the morning or before noon.

p.m. – in the afternoon

• The question Mark (?)

This is used only after direct questions and question tags. For example:

a) Have you been to Mukono?

b) That is a very interesting letter, isn't it?

- The Exclamation Mark: (!)

This is used after exclamation words or sentences.

Examples:

a) Help!

- d) to mark off interjections like please, thank you, yes and no. e.g. Yes, I visited him on Saturday.
- e) in question tags

Example:

1. She replied to the letter, didn't she?

• The semi-colon (;)

This is used between two loosely connected main clauses, for example:

- a) There was no cloud in the sky; it was extremely hot.
- b) The question paper had been leaked; therefore, the examination could not take place.

• The colon (:)

- this is used;

- a) To introduce a quotation:

Example:

Benard said: "Follow your dreams."

- b) To introduce words which explain what has already been referred to; for example:

She now had many choices; she can go home, she can go for music training or she can go for a netball practice.

• Quotation Marks (" ")

These are used: before and after words which are the exact words of somebody in the direct speech.

Example:

"Don't forget to bring your own pen with you," the teacher said.

- b) For titles of books, plays, poems or articles e.g. "Oliver Twist"

- c) For words not accepted in English, especially those from other languages but used because there is no English word for them.

For example;

"Adungu"

- The Apostrophe (')

This is used to show omission of one or more letters.

Examples:

hasn't, isn't, can't

b) To show possession.

Examples:

Kato's pen, James' toy, Anna's dress, Agnes' watch

Note, the position of the apostrophe in the plural differs e.g.

boys' games, children's books, ladies' clothes, men's clothes

Note

- It's - it is (contraction) / its = possession
- Who's - who is or who has (contraction) / whose = possession

Grammar

Punctuation (continuation)

The dash(—)

The dash is used to give extra information or comments.

The dash is used in the same way as the brackets. In formal writing, you should use the bracket rather than the dash, as a dash is considered less formal.

Example:

- a) She might reply to your letter – you never know.

The Hyphen (-)

This is used:

- a) in compound nouns e.g. father - in - law.
 - b) in numbers
- Use a hyphen with compound numbers from twenty - one to ninety - nine.
- c) in letter collisions e.g. co-operate, bell - like

Grammar

The possessive form.

Possessive pronouns show ownership. These include: his, mine, hers, our, their, yours, ones, its.

Pronoun	Possessive pronoun	Possessive adjective
me	mine	my
our	ours	our
they	theirs	their
you	yours	your
one	ones	ones
it	its	its
he	his	his
she	her	her

Possessive pronouns replace possessive nouns as either the subject or the object of a clause because the noun being replaced doesn't appear in the sentence, it must be clear from the context. They are also not followed by any one other noun.

Examples:

- a) This book is mine.
- b) The ruler is hers.

Possessive adjectives shows that something belongs to someone. This include; my, our, their, etc. Possessive adjectives work as pronouns because they refer to an understood noun. They also work as adjectives because they give more information about the noun by showing possession by that noun.

Examples.

1. Where is your ruler?
2. My dress was stolen.

Exercise

Use the correct form of the word given in brackets to complete the sentences.

1. May I use _____ jerrycan to fetch water? (you)

4. _____ doll was bought from that shop. (she)
5. That ball is _____. (he)
6. Alex's house is bigger than _____. (we)
7. Did you take _____ book to the teacher? (they)
8. That is _____ envelope. (you)
9. Did she receive _____ letter? (she)

Fill blank spaces with mine, theirs, his, hers, its.

1. The dress belongs to me.
♦ It is mine.
2. The glasses are for her mother.
They are _____.
3. This basket belongs to James.
It is _____.
4. This pair of shorts belongs to him.
It is _____.
5. The horn belongs to them.
It is _____.
6. This is not my book.
It is not _____.

Grammar

Punctuation (continuation)

The apostrophe

The apostrophe is used to show possession i.e

1. Maria's bag means that- The bag belongs to Maria.
 2. Tom's shirt means that- The shirt belongs to Tom.

Examples

1. That is Chandiru's dress.

Grammar

There are two kinds of letters:

- Personal/informal/friendly letters
- Official/business/formal letters.

Personal letters:

These are letters written to a family member, close friend, or relative.

Parts of a friendly letter.

1. The address

This is the writer's full address. This informs the reader where you wrote the letter from.

There are two types of addresses. i.e.

1. Personal addresses
2. Business addresses

Personal address

A personal address belongs to an individual and it must bear his/her name. e.g.

Mubiru Anderson,

PO Box 274,
Tororo.

A business address

A business address is an address for an organization, company or business.
A business address must define itself e.g. If it is a school address, then it must have the word school e.g.

Sipro Primary School,
PO Box 36258,
Kampala.

2. Salutation or greeting

The form of greeting will depend upon the relation in which you stand to the person to whom you are writing.

a) To members of your family, it will be

Dear Father, Dear Mother, etc.

b) To friends, it will be;

Dear Agnes, or Dear Atim, etc.

3. Body of the letter or the communication

- The main body of the letter will, of course, depend on the person it is being sent to.
Writing an informal letter is generally similar to a conversation. Therefore, it is not bad to use expressions like "I am glad to write you this letter; I hope you are well", Personal letters are generally intended for the exchange of ideas (like in conversation).

4. The ending of a letter/The closing

- 'Yours affectionately' can be used for most personal letters. 'Yours ever' can be used when writing to a person you have known for a long time. The ending must be written below the last words of the letter.

5. The name of the writer

This must be written below the closing.

Alternative methods of writing the date are:

- 15/8/2021.
- 15 -8-2021.
- August 15, 2021.
- 15th August, 2021.

Points to note:

You may use block or indented style when writing a letter.

Indented or slanting form of letter writing:

- The writer's address is normally written in slanting or indented style.
- And this address is put at the top right hand corner of the paper and the date follows.
- We paragraph by leaving space after the margin.
- No lines are skipped between items.
- Commas must be put at the end of each line of the address.

(Except the last, which has a full stop)

Useful phrases for personal letters:

- Many thanks for your letter -----
- I am very sorry not to have written before -----
- I apologize for the delay in writing-----
- It was good to hear from you again.
- I was glad to hear that -----
- I put off writing to you until -----
- Remember to -----
- With best regards -----
- With best wishes,
- With all good wishes,

Comprehension (passage)

Read the passage below carefully and, in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

One day, our teacher took us to the post office to learn how to post a letter. When we reached the post office, it was already 3:00 O'clock. Our teacher left the children outside as he went with me to the inquiry office. We found a tall thin young man at the counter. The teacher asked him whether they received the letter about our visit. The young man said that they did and they were eagerly waiting for us.

He told the teacher and I to sit down and wait for him. Shortly, he came back and told the teacher to call my friends who were outside. My friends came in. He asked us in which class we were and we told him we were in P.5. He said, "My name is Lwankasa Simon, I work as a clerk here."

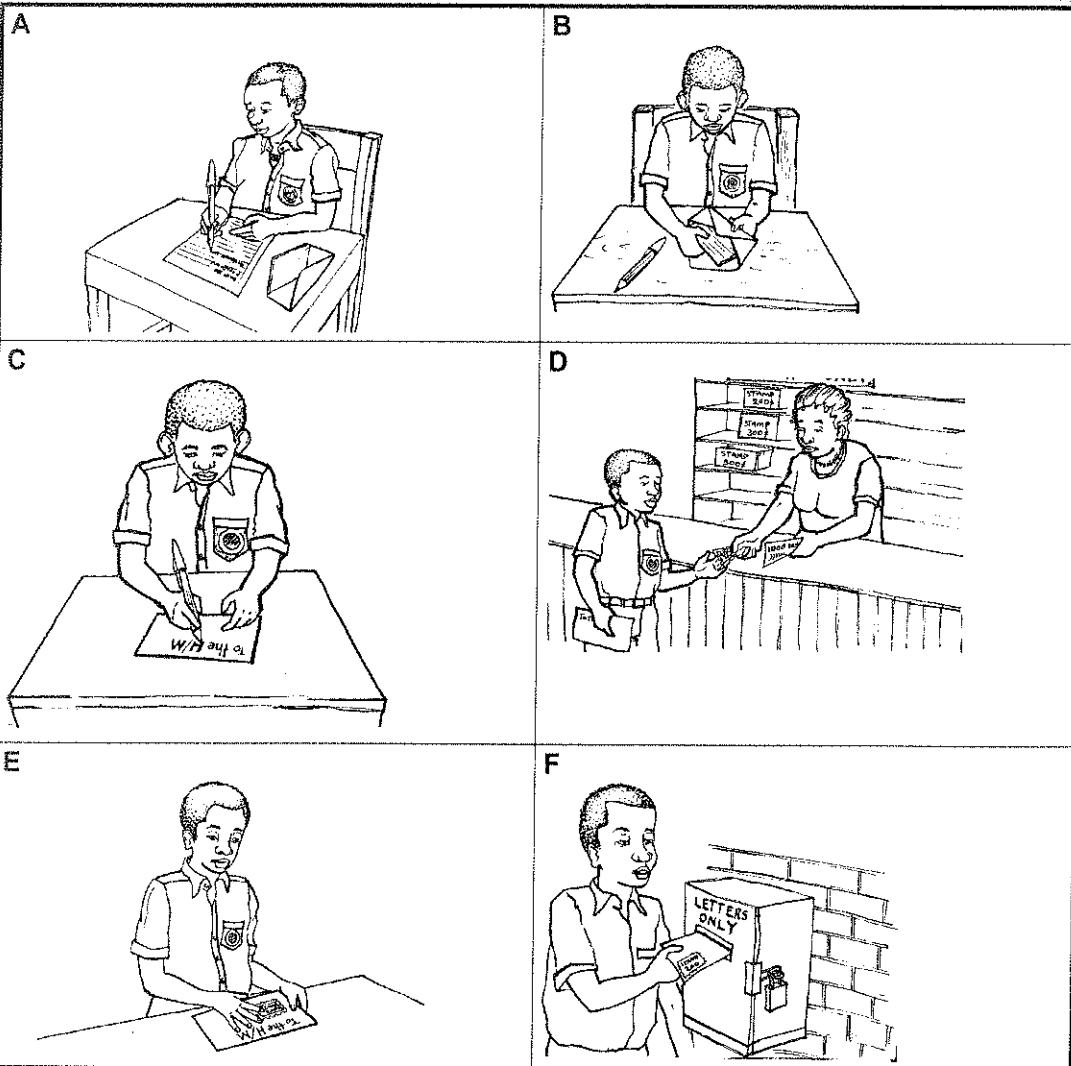

He asked if any of us has ever written a letter. All of us said that we had written letters before but we had never posted them. He went ahead and showed us stamps. He showed us stamps for different types of letters. He then showed us how letters are weighed and then took us to the room with box numbers. There were many numbers written on the slots. He showed us the slot for our school. There were four letters. The clerk informed our teacher that the letters will be brought to school. The clerk asked us whether we had anybody to write to. He gave us sheets of paper and we wrote letters to our friends. He gave stamps and envelopes. Our letters were posted. Finally, we had to leave the post office and head back to school. It was really a day to remember.

MAKING A TELEPHONE CALL

Anita: Mum, what do I do if I want to make a phone call on a mobile phone?

Mum: Anita, you don't have a mobile phone, why do you want to know how to use a phone?

Anita: Mum, don't you know that the world is developing every day? I may get a problem and wish to communicate to you or the police for help.

Mum: You are right my daughter. What you need to do first is to unlock the phone?

Anita: Do you mean I should have the key to unlock it?

Mum: No, you only need to press the unlock button.

Anita: Where can I find that button?

Mum: It depends on the nature of the phone. Most phones have it on the top left hand corner below the screen, and you will press a star button then it will be unlocked.

Anita: Then after that, what do I do next?

Mum: You will then dial the number you need to communicate to and then press yes/ok button. When the receiver says Hullo, then you can now say what you want.

Anita: Thank you mum for guiding me on how to use a phone.

Comprehension (passage)

Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow. In Uganda, many people own mobile phones nowadays. Whereas some are smart phones, others are not. The smart phones are the most expensive. Very many people still buy them because of their functions. These people also include school going children. Unfortunately, while at school, pupils are not allowed to have mobile phones. There are a number of reasons that are given for this. For example, mobile phones can divert learners' attention from lessons. In my opinion, however, pupils should have mobile phones while they are at school for a number of reasons.

First and foremost, pupils will use the phones to communicate to their parents. Personally, as a pupil, I need to keep in touch with my parents. They have to know how I am doing and I have to know how they are as well. Second, mobile phones will greatly help us to research in case a teacher gives us assignments. During the research, we make the best use of the internet. Lastly, we also use mobile phones for entertainment. We play games and watch educative movies using our mobile phones.

In conclusion, pupils should have mobile phones while they are at school. However, they should use them wisely. They should know how, when and where to use them.

Questions:

- a) Which kind of phone is preferred by most people?
 - b) When are children not allowed to use phones?
 - c) According to the passage, why aren't phones good at school?
 - d) Who do you think wrote this passage?
 - e) When do the pupils research?
 - f) How do pupils use mobile phones for entertainment?
 - g) What advice did the writer give to the reader?
- Give another word or group of words with the same meaning as each of the underlined words in the passage.
- h) opinion
 - i) help
 - j) Suggest a suitable title to the passage.

THE FIRST TIME I FLEW IN AN AEROPLANE

It was in October 2020. My relatives accompanied me to the airport at 8:00a.m., they announced my flight over the loud speaker. "Flight QU14 is now boarding. Passengers travelling to London and Gatwick, by Air Uganda must please go to gate number one." We were many people of different nationalities and languages. We picked our bags and walked towards the plane.

On the plane, I met people from Britain, America, China, Germany and of course we the Ugandans. I was feeling a bit excited being my first time on the plane. The air hostess came and guided me on how to fasten my seat belt. Later, she told me to feel at home. I asked her where she comes from. She told me that she is a Congolese from Congo. I told her that I am a Ugandan from Gulu. She was so happy to meet a person from the northern part of Uganda. The plane moved away from the terminal and lifted itself off the ground with a great roar. I could hear and feel the wheels coming off the ground. I asked the German seated next to me the height planes normally fly above the ground. He told me 25,000 feet. I became scared and worried but he told me to stay calm because everyone was safe. I told him I was going to visit my cousin Johnson in America.

PEOPLE IN MY VILLAGE

Musukire Village is near Mpele Town. The main occupation here is farming. The people in this village produce most of the food sold in Mpele Town. The people in my village are kind. I like their kindness because they welcome every visitor to the village. Whether you understand their language or not, these people will find a way of communicating to you. They may use words or sign language. You cannot tell the major language spoken in the village because the area has a number of tribes.

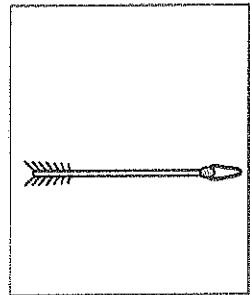

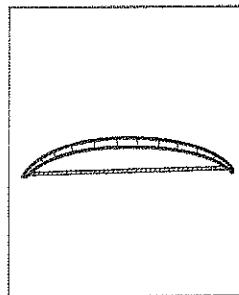

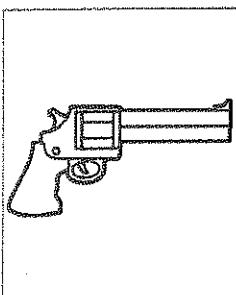

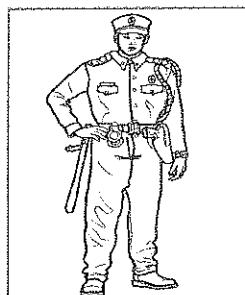

Different languages are spoken by every group of people you meet. However, we have a common language that is Kiswahili. Everyone in my village can speak Kiswahili. This is because many Kenyans live in our village.

PRACTICAL WORK

-Fill in a blank cheque.

-Act out a dialogue about banking with your friends.

Language structures

Using:----- as soon as-----

'As soon as' is used when talking about the shortest time lasted when the two actions took place. It shows that one action happened immediately after the other. Other conjunctions used in the same way are; immediately, the moment, just after, shortly after, etc.

When using 'as soon as' within the sentences, you begin with the second action in the order.

There is no comma needed.

Read these sentences.

- a) It started raining as soon as I arrived at the bank.
- b) The machine welcomed me as soon as I inserted the card in it.

Exercise

A) Rewrite the sentences using:----- as soon as-----

1. Immediately I handed over the withdraw form to the teller, she asked me for the ID.
♦ The teller asked me for the ID as soon as I handed over the withdraw form to her.
2. The manager looked at the cheque. He refused to honour it.
3. Immediately I opened an account, I was given a pass-book.
4. The ATM gave me money the moment I inserted in the card.
5. I bought the cheque book the moment it was sent.
6. I deposited money. They gave me a copy of the deposit form.
7. He was seen forging a signature to withdraw money. He was arrested.
8. The cashier signed my bank book immediately I gave it to him.
9. Ibrahim opened the safe. He put the land title in it.
10. Kapere read the bank statement. He tore it.
11. The moment the accountant entered into the bank, he collapsed.

B) Rewrite as two separate sentences.

1. They gave me my balance as soon as I asked for it.
2. The cheque bounced as soon as Mbaga gave it to the manager.
3. My company received a loan as soon as it requested for it.
4. The account was closed as soon as it remained with zero balance.
5. The machine was taken away as soon as it stopped working.

Language structures

Using: As soon as-----

When 'As soon as' is used at the beginning of the sentence, a comma is put after the first clause. Here, you must begin with the first action in the sequence.

Read these sentences.

- a) As soon as the bank manager resigned, the bank lost clients.
- b) As soon as I texted the teller, I got the feed back.

Exercise

Rewrite these sentences beginning: As soon as-----

1. I applied to the bank. They called me for interviews.
♦ As soon as I applied to the bank, they called me for interviews.
2. Tumwebaze set off to the bank immediately he was sent.
3. Atenyi forged the bank notes the moment he ran bankrupt.
4. When the cashier finished signing, he asked me to sign as well.
5. Hamis entered into the bank. The guard closed the door.
6. Gloria switched the phone off. She entered into the bank.
7. Namuswe filled the form. She handed it to the cashier.

Conjunctions

Enough----to:

If there are twenty children in a classroom and you want to give them phones. You have twenty phones with you. Therefore, the phones are enough for all the children.

Enough is used to mean to the necessary degree. It also means much as somebody needs or wants.

'Enough' is used with preposition 'to'. It is used after verbs, adjectives and adverbs to mean "to the necessary degree."

Read these sentences.

- I have enough money to run my account.
- The Bank manager is experienced enough to manage this bank effectively.

Exercise

Join these sentences using:----- enough-----

- Joel is old. He can open a fixed account with us.
♦ Joel is old enough to open a fixed account with us.
- The cheque is valid. It can be accepted by the bank.
- The bank's services are very good. They can attract many clients.
- The ATM is durable. It can last for over forty years.
- The bank-book is big. It can be used for a long period of time.

- The banks are very efficient. They can offer you good services.
- The safe is secure. It can keep your property safely.
- The teller is knowledgeable. He can balance all the accounts well.
- I have much savings. My children can survive on.

Use of enough in negative sentences.

When we use ----enough---- to join two negative sentences, the adjective changes to its opposite.

Read these sentences.

- The cashier is not hard-working enough to work the whole day.
- The bank is not large enough to accommodate many customers.

Exercise

Join these sentences using -----not----enough to-----.

- Kevin is very young. She cannot bank her school fees alone.
- The bank manager is uncomfortable. He cannot work on all clients.
- The customer is impatient. She cannot wait for long.
- This safe is very weak. It cannot keep our money.
- The village bank is insecure. It cannot keep people's money.

COMMON MISTAKES

Incorrect: Is the room enough large for you?

Correct: Is the room large enough for you?

Comment: The word "enough" can be used as both an adverb and an adjective.

When it is used as an adverb to modify an adjective, it is used after the adjective. But when enough is used as an adjective to modify a noun, you can use it either before or after the noun. Example

- 1)- We have enough food for five people, or
- 2)- We have food enough for five people.

Language structures

Such-----that-----

- Such is followed by the adjective, the common noun + that.
- If the noun is singular, it is followed by the articles 'a' or 'an' depending on the adjective but if the noun is plural, there is no need of an article.

Read these sentences.

- a) The bank manager is such a kind man that he accepted to reopen my account.
- b) It is such a nice looking passbook that I don't want to lose it.

Exercise

Join these sentences using: -----such-----that-----
