51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

The Primary Six pupils were busy learning how to use the dictionary on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Mugabi had given them an exercise on constructing sentences using new words. She first taught them some new words such as alphabet, dictionary, arrange, look up, spelling and so many others.

Of the forty pupils, only half had dictionaries. Those who didn't have them had a difficult time. They had to move here and there asking for help from those who had. Okello, the class monitor, had an Oxford Advanced Learners' Dictionary. When he looked up the words, he made a sigh of relief.

Mrs. Mugabi later came to check whether the pupils were through with the exercise. She was impressed with the pupils' good work. "I am happy that many of you have learnt the dictionary skills," she said.
