SECTION B (50 MARKS)

51. Read the passage below carefully and, in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

Kadeku was invited to attend a meeting that was organised by Butebo district last week. The meeting was about saving the environment. Being a candidate at Petete Primary School, Kadeku was given a chance to brief people about environmental protection. Without fear, Kadeku told the audience that there was need to save the environment because he had seen people degrading the environment by cutting down trees, encroaching on wetlands. He said that some people were making it worse by killing wild animals and as a result there was no more rain in the area like it used to be in the past.

He stated that some families were losing their roofs because of strong wind that was blowing them off and some animal species were no more. People in the audience paid attention to him and he was applauded by the district chairperson, Mr. Maswisiwi for being elaborate and brave. The chairperson, together with the audience, passed a resolution that there would be no more cutting down of trees and encroaching on wetlands. They also agreed to plant ten million trees in the district to bring back the lost glory of that area.

The meeting was a fruitful one because some people started implementing what was discussed immediately.

55. Read the poem below carefully and, in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

PEACE!

PEACE!

PEACE!

Peace, a gentle breeze that soothes the soul,
A calm within, that makes us whole,
A world where love and kindness reign,
Where hearts are light, and spirits sustain.

In peaceful moments, we find our strength,
A sense of calm, that guides us at length,
The noise and chaos fade away,
As peace descents and stays.

With peaceful thoughts, we cultivate love,
And send it out from above,
Love spreads like winds and takes us high,
To a place where peace never says goodbye.

So let us strive, for peaceful days,
And fill our hearts with love for other people,
For peace is the key to a brighter fate.

Patience (P.7)
